GREEK REPLY HANDED ALLIES

Conciliatory in Tone, But Fails to Meet Expectations

WILL RESIST ATTACK

Kaiser Aware That Czar is About to Strike—Roumania May Meet Fate of Belgium.

London, Nov. 29., 10:40 a. m.—The Greek government is ready to discuss the propositions made by the entente powers and satisfy all demands which will not compromise its neutrality, says an Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Athens, Nov. 29.—The Greek reply to the entente powers' last note, setting forth their demands in connection with the Balkan campaign, was handed to the allies' minister here yesterday, it is announced.

What the Greek communication stated in answer to the allies has not yet been made public, but it is the general impression that while conciliatory in tone, it falls short of granting what the entente group asks.

Paris, Nov. 29.—Germany is rushing preparations today to resist a Russian attack in the Balkans.

The Kaiser evidently has decided the Czar is about to strike. The moment this happens, it seems certain Romania will be swept by just such a German flood as has passed over Belgium and Serbia.

London, Nov. 29.—Renewed Swiss reports of Goritz's capture by the Italians are unconfirmed and disbelieved. Official Rome message say the Austrians are losing outpost after outpost, however, and the city's ultimate fall is believed certain.

Vienna, Nov. 29.—Thousands are falling in a series of increasingly desperate attacks and counter-attacks between Austrians and Italians in the district about Goritz, says today's official statement.

"Though the Italians have been heavily re-enforced," says the report, "their continuous attacks on the Goritz bridgehead have been repulsed.

"We have recaptured by storm the summit we lost temporarily northeast of Oslavia. The routed enemy left 1,000 dead in the vicinity.

"There was also tremendous loss of life in front of our Serbian Podgora position. The Italians penetrated our line here, but were driven back later.

BOY ACCUSED OF ASSAULT.

Four-Year-Old Girl Found Unconscious in Stable.

Hagerstown, Md., Nov. 29.—John Delosier, 15 years old, was arrested last night charged with committing a criminal assault upon 4 year old Elsie Colvin, this afternoon, in Valentine's stable on Honey Hill.

The little girl was found unconscious black in the face and entirely nude, with a stocking tied tightly about her neck to prevent her from screaming.

Delosier was seen leaving the stable by several boys.

The Colvin family moved here recently from Virginia.

PHYSICIAN SLAYS HIMSELF

Puts Bullet in Head During Absence of Sisters

Philadelphia, Nov. 29—While temporarily insane, it is believed, Dr. Walter I. Pennock committed suicide yesterday in the bedroom of his home No. 221 North Seventeenth street, by shooting himself in the temple.

According to the police, Dr. Pennock, who was 51, years old, had an extensive practice and enjoyed the best of health. It is believed when he was left alone yesterday he became temporarily insane and fired the shot that ended his life.

Sinks Two French Ships

London, Nov. 29—The French steamship Algeaian and Omar and the British steamship Tanis have been sunk by submarines. From the Algerian, twenty-nine persons are missing.

LOCAL BREVITIES

A gasoline launch, valued at $200 has been stolen from Augustus Dean's shipyard.

The Willard W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at 713 Cameron street.

The annual inspection of Canton Alexandria No. 1, Patriarchs Millitant will take place tonight in Odd Fellows Hall. The public is invited to attend the inspection.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Bannon Cooper, attended the Army and Navy game and Mrs. Cooper will spend a week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Moxley D. Low, of Elizabeth, N. J.

Mrs. John Augustine Smith of Charlestown, W. Va., is visiting Mrs Maurice Wilkins in north Columbus street.

The benefit which was announced for Monday evening in behalf of Mrs George Craven is to be presented by the Frank W. Smith Co., and not by the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum as previously advertised. The latter, however, have granted the use of their hall for the occasion, as requested by the preformers.

The sermon at the Washington Street Methodist Church South, yesterday morning was preached by the Rev. J. M. Nourse, of this city, former pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, in the absence of Rev. Dr. J. W. Duffey, pastor of the church.

On Wednesday night Nov. 24, there was held a delightful musical entertainment at Lorton for the benefit of the Episcopal chapel there. A large part of the program was rendered by the Ideal Mandolin Club from Alexandria. After a most enjoyable program, refreshments were served. Quite a number of Alexandrians were present owing chiefly to the kindness of Mr. Frank King, who took them out in his large auto-truck.

COMPANY STAYS OVER.

Having scored a great hit Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week the Jackson and Andrews Musical Comedy Company has been held over by the Opera House management for the first three days of this week. Tonight they will present another musical production entitled "The Battle of Nations," a sort of travesty on war, that is said to be one of the funniest shows ever produced at the local theatre. The large audiences that attended the first three days' engagement of the above company were more than pleased and there is no doubt but that the offering for tonight will register as great a hit. The show is replete with late and tuneful music and new and up to date comedy. Another special set the company's own scenery will be used in staging the bill. Miss Ollie Payne, will be seen in the role of Colonel Bon Bon. Miss Ida Howard as General Sweet. while Mr. Bert Jackson, Jim Pearl and Harry Le Van, will be titled officers in various fighting organizations. The comedians make the best of the many laughable situations and their work is augumented greatly by the chorus of suffragettes.

Tonight is also country store night and many valuable presents will be given away including a live baby pig.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Edmond Waddill, of the United States District Court overruled the demurrur to the declaration on Saturday in the suit of Mrs. Virginia A. McGwinn, administratrix, against the Southern Railway Co., for $25,000 damages. Attorneys for Mrs. McGwinn, are Leo P. Harlow and Charles Bendheim of this city, and for the Southern Railway, Moore, Keith, McCandlish and Hall, of Fairfax Courthouse.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear son, MELVIN E. HUMPHRIES.
One year has passed since you went away
The summons was so quick,
I had not time to say, "Good Bye,"
They say, "you suffered not,
You went without a pain."
God help me to believe.
My loss was but your gain.

HOLD ONLY FRINGE OF THEIR COUNTRY

Most of Serbs Driven Into Montenegro and Northern Albania

CONTINUE TO RESIST

For Some Reason Bulgarian Forces Halt in March to Monastir—May Not Push West.

London, Nov. 29.—The greater portion of what remains of the Serbian northern army is believed to have crossed into the mountains of Albania and Montenegro, where the Serbs are continuing, with the aid of King Nicholas's troops, to offer stern resistance to the Austro-German and Bulgarian invaders. Like the Belgiums however, the Serbians hold only a fringe of their country, which widens as it reaches the northwestern corner of which Monastir is the center.

For some reason, the Bulgarians have halted their march on that city. It is said in some dispatches that, having occupied part of Macedonia, largely inhabited by their fellow-nationals the Bulgarian people and government are disinclined to push any further west, and on this point are in disagreement, with their Austro-German allies, who are determined to drive not only the Serbians and Montenegrins but the French and British troops, out of the Balkans.

While at the present time they have largely superior forces, the task may prove a difficult one. Winter has set in at an unusually early date, and the natives predict that it will be severe. Snow fell at Saloniki on Saturday, for the first time in eight years. During the latter part of the week continuous storms compelled the suspension of operations, giving the French and British time to bring up re-enforcements, which are being landed at Saloniki daily, and consolidate their positions.

The Austro-German forces also have had to divert part of their armies down the Danube to the Roumanian border, Roumania having refused the German request for the opening of the Danube throughout its entire length to enable the Germans to send supplies to Bulgaria and Turkey. Roumania insisted that armed ships must not pass Baba, on the Danube at the Roumanian-Bulgarian boundary.

With the concentration of the Russians, too, the attitude of Roumania is daily becoming more probably.

Burharest, Nov. 29.—The Bulgarians are reported to have suffered very heavy losses, probably amounting to 50,000 in killed, and wounded, largely due to the frequency of their bayonet charges. Many officers of high rank have fallen. Among the dead are the son of the Bulgarian minister at Washington, and famous insurgent chief Tchernopoff.

GERMANS ATTACK LABYRINTH.

Explode Mine, But Cannot Advance Beyond Crater.

Paris, Nov. 29.—A German attack to the north of "the labyrinth," following the explosion of a mine, was repulsed after violent fighting, according to the statement issued by the War Office yesterday, afternoon. The Germans, however, succeeded in occupying the excavation caused by the explosion. There also was fighting during the night with hand grenades at the fortifications of Givenchy and in the region between Roclincourt and the Chantecler farm, but elsewhere quiet prevailed. The text of the communication follows:

"In Artois the night was marked by active bomb and hand grenade fighting at the fortifications of Givenchy and in the region between Roclincourt and the Chantecler farm.

"To the north of 'the labyrinth' the enemy, after having exploded a mine in front of one of our works, delivered an attack, Violent fighting followed which terminated to our advantage. The enemy did not succeed in reaching our trench. He was only able to occupy the crater formed by the explosion of the mine. There is nothing to report on the rest of the front."

FRATERNAL AMERICANS.

Alexandria Council Holds Interesting And Impressive Memorial Service

Members of Alexandria Council, No. 5, Order of Fraternal Americans, attended the annual memorial services at the Methodist Protestant Church, last night. A sermon appropriate to the occasion was preached by the Rev. Edward T. Kirkley. The minister spoke from the eleventh chapter of the Gospel of John—"I am the resurrection and the life," and his discourse was listened to with close attention by the large congregation present.

O. H. Daniels, chairman of the committee of the order, presided. He read the proclamation of the State President of the Order of Fraternal Americans, setting apart yesterday for the celebration of memorial services. Mr. Daniels in the course of his remarks, said, seventy-two members of the council had died since its institution, and six since the last memorial day services. He called the name of each former member.

The choir of the church rendered special music on the occasion.

ACCUSED AS CHICKEN THIEF

William Love, colored, 40 years old, was arraigned before Police Justice William Gloth, in Alexandria county, this morning, in connection with an attempt to rob the renery on Walter C. Davis' place, in Del Ray, several nights ago. Love was arrested by the Washington police upon clews furnished them, it is stated, by Magistrate Frank E. Heisley and Constable Richard Crane, of Del Ray. When interrupted by David Glasscock, who lives near the Davis home, the chicken thief fled, leaving behind a suit case, two gunny sacks, his coat and his hat. It is said that a memorandum book in the pocket of the coat led to the arrest of Love. The negro was brought to this city and turned over yesterday to the Alexandria county authorities.

Woman Fell Down Well

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 29—Margaret Anderson, widow of Andrew G. Anderson, Sioux City's flood hero, fell to the bottom of a thirty-foot well when the board covering gave way.

She was saved from death by landing on a pillow which she was carrying to a clothesline in the back yard. A neighbor saw her fall and summoned help.

"Dry" Leader Arrested

Atlanta, Nov. 29—J. D. Brown one of the prohibition leaders in the legislature, was arrested today on the charge of drunkenness. Officers also alleged that Brown had taken a baby from a woman. Brown was arrested at the Terminal Station, where he had wandered in search of a train for home.

The policemen said Brown staggered up to a woman, snatched her baby from her arms, and started away. Superintendent Eichelberger, of the Anti-Saloon League, secured Brown's release and sent him home.

When Brown was arrested some say he alleged he had been made drunk by liquor lobbyists in an effort to keep him from voting for the prohibition measure.

WILL REVISE SENATE RULES

Majority of Body in Favor of Putting Limit on Discussions

CAUCUSES OF TODAY

Senators and Representatives Gather For Meetings Preliminary to Opening Congress.

Washington, Nov. 29—Organization of the Sixty-fourth Congress, which convenes Monday, December 6, began today. Democrats of the Senate held their caucus at noon and at the same hour the Ways and Means Committee Democrats of the House undertook the task of parceling out committee recommendations.

The Senate Democratic caucus was called to order by Senator Kern, the conference chairman. It is expected that there will be daily sessions throughout the week, the question of revising the rules and providing for cloture of debate promising to enliven the proceedings. For several months a special committee, headed by Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, has had revision of the rules under consideration. This committee will report to the caucus its recommendation, including a modified form of cloture on debate designed to prevent endless filibusters.

It is believed a majority of the Democrats will favor some form of cloture rule. Some are known to oppose it vigorously, however, and much discussion is certain before the caucus reaches any decision.

Organization work of the Senate majority is not expected to precipitate any clashes. Although there have been rumors of changes in leadership, no definite contests for the honor have thus far developed. Senator Kern, it is believed, will be re-elected as majority leader; Senator Clarke of Arkansas, as President pro-tempore, and Senator Lewis of Illinois as party whip, if he so desires.

No change in chairmanships of important Senate committees is contemplated, unless some of the Senators want to trade in order to make room for the new members. If any chairmanships are changed, however, the leaders say, they will be in minor committees, Heads of committees upon which will fall the major portion of work for the coming session will not be disturbed.

Work of reorganization in the House is a considerably greater task although but few changes in chairmanships of the principal committees are contemplated, however. Representative Kitchin of North Carolina already has been selected as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

Senator Martin, of Virginia, has announced that he will introduce at the approaching session of Congress a new Federal Employes' Compensation bill, which will have the approval of the Secretary of Labor and of the labor organizations.

Senator Martin has given much thought during the recess of Congress to a practical plan for the extension of more adequate benefits to Federal workmen injured in line of duty and to the families of those who may be killed, and has prepared a measure which the Secretary of Labor has pronounced "ideal."

Congressman McGillicuddy, of Maine, who is one of the prominent members of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, will introduce that body a bill similar to the one hwich Senator Martin will offer in the Senate, and between them they hope to secure the enactment of the measure into law during the next Congress.

The present Federal Compensation law includes only about one-fourth of the civilians employed of the Government, and Senator Martin's bill proposes to extend its benefits to all carriers and other postal employes and members of the Coast Guard Service, as well as to increase the benefits of those who are already embraced within the provision of the existing law.

RED CROSS CHRISTMAS SEALS

Orders for Seals are Doubled and Trebled by Agents Throughout State.

Richmond, Nov. 29—Miss Agnes D. Randolph, Executive Secretary of the Virginia Anti-Tuberculosis Association stated today that over one million Red Cross Seals had already been ordered by the State Agents. This is almost the total of the number distributed during the whole of last year's campaign. The Red Cross Chrismas Seal is sold throughout the United States just prior to Christmas each year, and is used as a decoration for packages and letters. The receipts from the sale go to the relief of the tuberculosis and their families to the general educational campaign of prevention, and to the support of tuberculosis camps, open air schools, etc. Last year one million and three hundred thousands seals were distributed, and three thousand eight hundred dollars was realized from the sale. Miss Randolph has already distributed eight hundred thousand seals and has a number of large orders to be filled.

"The small number o fseals sold in Virginia has been discouraging to us in some respects," said Miss Randolph "since whever there is general knowledge of the value of the tuberculosis campaign the sale is always large. Three seals per capita is considered a fair sale, which would raise Virginia's proper donation to somewhat over $60,000. We are much encouraged this year by the large size of the agent's orders. Richmond has ordered four times as many seals as heretofore. Danville, which has done real constructive work this year, has ordered six times as many as they did last year. Roanoke starts off with an additional fifty thousand. There are more agents this year, also, and we have broken into some of the counties which did not sell seals last year. We hope this will be a banner year. If the Virginia people knew that this was the one general appeal which we make for aid for the poor consumptive and for money for the tuberculosis campaign, we would treble our present sales."

SCHOOL OF APPRENTICES

Students Enlisted from Leading Southern Universities

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29—Seeking to enlist in the service of its maintenance of way department young men of technical training who were born and bred in the South, Southern Railway Company has maintained during the past two years and has now successfully established a school of student apprentices enlisted from graduates o fthe leading universities. This is in effect a post graduate course in overalls with an assurance of a practical life opportunity to those who succeed.

The course has been arranged to take the student apprentice through the daily duties of track work as follows: 1st, as section laborer; 2nd, as laborer in yards and terminals; 3rd, as laborer in extra gang, 4th, as assistant foreman on extra gangs or in yards; 5th, as relief or designated section foreman; 6th, as assistant supervisor. From assistant supervisor the student apprentice may be promoted to supervisor, to assistant roadmaster, to roadmaster, and on up as his qualifications may justify and opportunity may offer as vacancies occur.

Southern Railway now has in its employ thirteen student apprentices of whom seven have been promoted to assistant supervisors.

INSANE SLAYER ESCAPES.

Killed Woman; Said He Was Former Priest.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 29.—Lorito Monastero, declared insane when tried for the murder of Mrs. Angeline Casale and committed to the county home at Woodsville, has escaped from that institution. Although he vanished three months ago, news of his disappearance did not became public until yesterday. This was his second escape.

Monastero was arrested shortly after the murder on August 31, 1914. The next day he mysteriously disappeared from his cell in the Northside Central Police Station. He was found several days later wandering on the outskirts of the city.

When first taken into custody, Monastero asserted that had formerly been a Catholic priest.

PEACE RUMORS ARE REVIVED

German Cardinal's Visit to Rome Considered Significant

MAY SEEK ARMISTICE

Said to be Planning Request to Warring Nations for Supension at Christmas Season.

Rome, Nov. 29—The expected visit of Cardinal Hartmann, of Germany, to the Vatican state chancery occurred soon after a protracted audience with the Pope. Cardinals Gasparri and Hartmann remained secluded for two hours. The greatest secrecy was maintained. The visit was even denied.

The first comments about Cardinal Hartmann's trip began yesterday afternoon, after he had received at his residence a number of high prelates and prominent laymen.

The Tribuna states that Cardinal Hartmann came on the request of the Kaiser to ask the Pope to renew his peace efforts and to submit to his new conditions. The Pope then invited Cardinal Mercier, knowing that the satisfactory solution of the Belgian question is the basis of peace. As Cardinal Mercier's trip is still doubtful the Tribuna argues that the Allies are still uninclined to discuss peace.

Vatican circles are more optimistic. Their belief is that, though Cardinal Hartmann is not intrusted with a mission, he is here at the direct request of the Pope to co-operate with the latter in arranging an armistice during the Christmas holidays.

Prelates add that the Pope's efforts to interest the Belgian patriots also betray a strong desire to obtain more humane treatment for their persecuted country. For this the Pope believes a meeting between Cardinal Hartmann and Cardinal Mercier, who is the greatest opponent of German rule in Belgium, is indispensable.

The Idea Nazionale's Berne correspondent confirms Cardinal Hartmann peace mission and defines him as the spokesman of the German peace party. According to this correspondent. Germany plans to induce the Vatican to start peace movements among Catholics in the belligerent countries.

Cardinal Hartmann when invited to make a statement to the press referred the newspaper men to the Vatican state chancery.

Another paper states that the relations between the Pope and the Kaiser were never better. On the occasion of the Pope's birthday, it says, the Kaiser sent a precious present, which was brought to Rome by a prominent neutral personage usually residing in Lucerne. Prince von Buelow is at present at Lucerne.

Albert Franz Jahnke, 89 years old, head of the firm of Jahnke Brothers, well-known jewelers of Richmond, died Saturday morning. Mr. Jahnke, was born in 1826 in Beitzer, Prussia.

FINE CARD PLAYERS

Proprietor of House Fined $20 and Players Assessed $5 Each

Playing cards in a public place, which is suspected of being a gambling house even if there are no stakes and the game is of the most innocent character, is contrary to the Virginia law, and subjects both the owner of the establishment and the players to punishment, was the verdict of Police Justice Caton this morning who fined Arthur Welsh, owner of a pool-room at the corner of Duke and Henry streets, $20 for permitting game in his place and three players $5 each for being participitants.

Sergeant Scott, who conducted a raid on the Welsh establishment early yesterday morning, told the court that there had been several complaints lodged against the place, and that on Friday night Samuel Blumberg, of Baltimore, had been taken there for the purpose of playing poker, and that after the game when Blumberg was returning to the center of the city he was held up by two men who had robbed him of $8. When the police raided the place at 12 o'clock they found the doors to the second floor barred by heavy pieces of lumber. Sometime was taken in removing the barriers, and when they gained access to the rooms they found a pitch game in progress with three men playing and several more looking on. There was no money in sight.

Justice Caton said that playing cards in such an establishment was contrary to law and fines were imposed. Four men who were arrested at the time of the raid forfeited collateral of $5 each by failing to appear in court this morning.

WANTS A SANE XMAS

Law Against Sale and Use of Explosives Will Be Enforced as Usual.

Police departments of Virginia cities have begun their annual crusade against the use of explosives during the coming holiday. Merchants have been warned against selling the same, and the latter are not laying in supplies. The police department of Richmond has sent out instructions throughout the city, and the state and city laws will be enforced against all.

Mayor Fisher has at the approach of Fourth of July and Christmas taken the same safe and sane precautions in Alexandria. The Police department notifies dealers what they may expect should they dispose of explosives; hence but few assume the risk of laying in such stocks.

The General Assembly many years ago, aware of the casualties resulting from the use of explosives, which were becoming more powerful every year, adopted an act forbidding the use of certain varieties of crackers anywhere in the commonwealth. Each city has its own local statutes. It is unlawful in Alexandria to sell or use any explosives within the city limits.

The crusade against those who would make all the noise possible on Christmas has extended of late throughout the entire country, and people are gradually dropping the explosive feature and adopting others more enjoyable and less dangerous. The mortality half a century ago from cannoncrackers, guns, pistols, torpedoes, etc., on Christmas Day was great, so much so that the authorities were compelled to act.

AFTER AUTOMOBILISTS.

Seven Alleged Speeders Taken in Custody in Alexandria County.

Determined to break up the practice of speeding through the town of Potomac, between Alexandria and Washington, where the speed limit is ten miles an hour, seven automobilists, several of them Alexandrians, were required to leave collateral with Mayor Kidwell, yesterday afternoon. Town Sergeant Robinson enlisted the services of several citizens and a space on the main thoroughfare was marked of and by a system of signals it was accurately determined how fast the automobilists were traveling. The Mount Vernon Avenue a fine boulevard, has just been completed through the town and it is said that practically all of the automobiles which pass over the road violate the speed ordinance.

VIRGINIA A. C. WINS EASILY

In a rather onesided, but very interesting, game the Virginia Athletic Club yesterday defeated the Empire Athletic Club by 40 to 0. The wonderful improvement of the Virginia team over its former games was very encouraging to the followers of the Orange and Blue, as next Sunday's game with the Mohawks will no doubt be the hardest the local club has bucked up against since its organization.

Copies of the Honolulu Star, of September 13th having been received here containing an account of the marriage of Miss Lucy Webb, formerly of this city to Lieut. Woodfin G. Jones, of the Second Infantry. The article says: "The bride is acknowledged to be one of the prettiest young women in Honolulu, but she never appeared sweeter, than when she walked to the altar leaning upon the arm of her cousin, Lieut. Daniel Swan, of the 2nd. Infantry. She wore a lovely gown of white brocaded white crepe de chine, trimmed with princess lace, and studded with pearls. Her filmy lace veil falling to the end of the long court train, was arranged about her face in the cap effect and over her arm she carried a shower boquet of bride's roses and orchids arranged with princess lace and fastened with orange blossoms. Only 20 months ago this gown and veil were worn by Mrs. Daniel Swan, one of the most charming of the service set." Mrs. Swan will be remembered in Alexandria as Miss Roxie Doniphan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Doniphan. Miss Webb, has been her guest in Honolulu.

Mr. W. A. Smoot, jr., is at the John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, where she is improving rapidly as the result of the treatment under Dr. Baer. She has been at the John Hopkins for the past ten days and will probably remain there for another month.

Miss Nellie Uhler, entertained at an informal dance Saturday evening, at her residence in north Washington street in honor of her house guest, Miss Helen Young, of Norfolk, The other guests were: Miss Lucy Uhler, Miss Delia Phillips, Miss Eliza Douglas, Miss Mittie Herbert, Miss Anita Abbott, of Washington; Miss Silvia De Beck, Mr. James Douglass, Mr. Jack Barrett, Mr. Ward Boswell, Mr. Garnett Pitts, Mr. George Pitss. Mr. George W. Lewis, Mr. Beaudrie Howel, Dr. Vivian Berry, Mr. Robley D. Brumback, Mr. Walter Foster, Mr. John McDowell, Mr. Stewart Godwin, and Mr. Robert Price of Washington, and Mr. Millard Butcher of New York

Frank D. Moore and Miss Ellen Grace Wiley, both of this city were married at the parsonage of St. Mary's Catholic Church at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, by the pastor, the Rev. Louis Smet. The bride was attended by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Henry Steiner, and the bridegroom had for his best man his brother, William E. Moore. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will spend their honeymoon motoring though Virginia.

Miss Ethel May Dunbar, daughter of Mrs. Mary Emma and the late Benjamin Nickay Dunbar, who has been spending the past week visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sidney J. Barnhouse in this city, has returned to her home in Baltimore.

The Current Topics Club will not meet again until after Christmas, when the remainder of the lecture course by Mrs. Hyde, will be resumed and the date will be announced previous to the meeting.

GERMANY'S FOOD PROBLEM.

The Literary Digest, whose business it is to keep in touch with public opinion the world over and whose facilities to that end are unqualed quotes from a number of German newspapers to show that in the Fatherland there is, especially among the poorer classes, a growing discontent at an increasing scarcity of nourishment food which is causing the government no little anxiety, and that this discontent is finding expression in the public prints, despite all the efforts of the authorities to suppress press comment on the situation. And that the conditions responsible for this discontent are not confined to any one locality, but are general throughout the Empire, may be reasonably assumed from the fact that the protests are voiced by newspapers in widely separated sections of the country.

For instance the Magdeburgische Zeitung says:

"On whatever side one listens, one hears rumors of grave discontent, indignation, and anger, although one hardly ever finds reference to it in the press. The editors are muzzled and are not allowed to represent the real feelings of the people. The discontent that is brewing is alarming. Something is preparing, the gravity of which can not be minimized. The root of it all is in the working classes, who can no longer secure food at a price they can afford to pay."

The Weser Zeitung, publishes at Bremen, which is a considerable distance from Magdenburg, delivers itself in very much the same strain:

"The indignant voice of the people is growing louder every day, although circumstances may muffle their cries. The men at the helm of the nation must know that they have to safeguard, before anything else, the unity of the people. They will be held accountable."

The Frankfuter Zeitung, which is regarded as a conservative and reliable organ, is found saying:

"While our troops are fighting like the heroes of the classical ages, want is growing acute at home, where the people are beginning to interpret the miserable existing conditions as the defeat of the Empire. We jeered at the blockade, but today we laugh no longer. The sinister aspect of things certainly provides no food for laughter."

In the capital conditions are fully as bad, if not worse. According to Berlin papers, the government regulations now forbid the use of meat on Tuesday and Fridays, and of fats —i. e., butter, oil, lard, etc.— on Mondays and Wednesdays. "Let us frankly admit that the German people are in distress," exclaims Maximilian Harden in the Zukunft; while the Berliner Zeitung says:

"During the last few days at the municipal stores there was such a crowd that the police had to be summoned to keep order. They were mostly women. A great number had to wait hours, and many fainted and fell from sheer exhaustion."

MARKED CONTRAST.

Horror at the atrocities which have marked the conduct of war on land and sea by some of the nations now at war in Europe is deplored everywhere in the United States. The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot makes the following timely observations:

"Those of us who gave our youth to a cause which now lives only in story may indulge honest pride in a glory that clings to the Confederate flag, though furled forever, a glory apart from the genius that illumined defeat or the valor that sanctified it, a glory which is the common property of Americans now.

"The Confederate army under Gen. Lee twice occupied portions of Maryland and Pennsylvania, "causing less damage to private property than the Federal troops who followed," depriving no civilian of life or liberty and molesting no women by deed or word." Gen. Lee's order when on the eve of entering Pennsylvania, and Gen. Bragg's, prior to his invasion of Kentucky and Ohio, are held up as models of conformity to humane rules of warfare, and they were obeyed. When the Confederates retired they left behind them no trail of smoking homesteads, ravaged fields, desecrated churches, ravished women or slaughtered civilians. Fortunate for this country that it has such precedents to which to refer."

Seth Low in an address to the New York Chamber of Commerce, last week said:

"The Confederate cruisers, the Alabama and Flordia, almost swept the American flag off of the ocean. They destroyed two of my father's vessels; for he scorned to seek safety for his ships by placing them under a foreign flag. But in all those years, so far as I know, no life of a non-combatant belligerent was lost as a result of these operations, much less any neutral life."

The Virginian-Pilot voices the sentiment of the entire southland when it says:

"The Confederacy is dead, but some of the virtues which its great leaders illustrated yet live and blossom in the dust. It is a proud epitaph that History has written on the tombstone of the dead warriors of the South: They fought like gentlemen and men of heart, and were as merciful as brave."

HORRORS OF THE WESTERN ZONE.

Letters written by German soldiers during the battle of Champagne, found on prisoners and dead depict the horrors of the war in Flanders.

"The battle front has disappeared in a cloud of smoke," wrote one. "nothing can be seen, for the French artillery fires almost as rapidly as the infantry. One armored shelter was crushed in, not one or the sixteen occupants having escaped, and men are falling like flies."

"Shells are simply raining upon us" another wrote, "If the end were only near! This is the cry every one should raise: 'Peace! Peace.'"

"Cruel hours!" a captain noted in his diary. "It is as if the earth were crumbling up. Our losses are very heavy. One company of 250 men had sixty killed last night, and a battery close by lost sixteen dead."

"Many of our men are useless," wrote the captain of the Twenty-fourth Infantry in a report intended for his superior officer. "We must have re-enforcements at once. Our men are dying of fatigue, privation and loss of sleep."

"Nothing to eat, heavy losses," noted another. "The French haven't ceased firing since the morning of the 21st; it has gone on for sixty hours; how long will it last? Every spot of our position is so bombarded that it is next to impossible for human beings to hold out any longer."

Another wrote: "We were 118 hours without food in a trench not two feet deep. Hell couldn't be worse."

In recent counterattacks German divisions were broken up and scattered, regiments even were divided, battalions sent to right and left in absolute contradiction of the German spirit of organization.

What acted most on the nerves of the German troops, according to information brought out by questioning prisoners, was the continuity of the French artillery fire, the weakness of their own reply, the extent of their losses, lack of food for several days and thirst. They surrendered in sections in many instances, and in whole companies in some. All acknowledged they were tired of the struggle.

A fact that is regarded as significant is that the re-enforcements the Germans sent up during the battle were mostly of the contingent of 1915, with some volunteers of the contingent of 1916, previously held in reserve at their bases. The conclusion drawn by some military critics is that Germany is nearing the day when she will no longer be able to maintain her present force on all her lines.

CAUGHT IN THEIR BEDS.

The recent battle of Champagne was a series of assaults by different sections of the French forces, each of which had its particular object in view arranged to harmonize with the general plan but executed independently. The lines that were forced were those organized by the Germans after the battle of the Marne and perfected by a year of systematic labor to a point where their defenders had so much confidence in them that the officers in command, though anticipating an attack, were caught in their beds by the first lines of the French rush.

The above brings to mind an incident in the career of Colonel John S. Mosby. During the early part of the war between the states General Stoughton, of the federal army, was located at Fairfax. The Mosby men had been giving the federals some trouble, and Stoughton, after having issued orders to his men to run down the daring band of Confederates, went to bed and felt asleep in imaginary security. He was later awakened by Colonel Mosby. Stoughton, arose rubbed his eyes and said: "Have you got Mosby?" supposing he was addressing his own men. Mosby replied: "No, but he has got you."

FIRE ALARMS AND FIRE BUGS

(Communicated)

Editor Gazette:

Will a modern, improved, double X, four-ply fire alarm system detect a fire-bug? Will it even deter some one who enjoys the midnight alarms, the hurried dressing, the fear, the awe, the rattle and roar, the clanging gongs, the clatter and scamper of many feet, the lurid glare, the crackling flames, the flying embers, the holocaust? The next day's scene of desolation, gaunt stark timbers, bare and blackened walls, dismantled structures, the home of industry destroyed, the means of livihood wiped out is to him one of delight. By all means that we can afford get a fire alarm system; but also "wake up" before the thing "goes off" and catch the nigger in the wood pile.

"Citizen."

GONE TO HER REWARD.

Communicated).

The death of Mrs. Octavia Walker, removes from our midst one of the most amiable and useful of our people. Living to a ripe old age, her past was filled with ministrations to the less fortunate and her separation from them will be sorely felt. Never seeking the plaudits of the world, she moved in and out in her modest way, always thinking of others. Mrs. Walker was the mother of the late Champ Walker, who is remembered by many. She is survived by two daughters and several grand children and many nephews and nieces.She was a life long member of the Southern Methodist Church.

The Great Reaper, has been unusually busy the past years and none of his victims will be missed more than the deceased. It is said that it is darkest before dawn, and we know that her awakening will be in a city not built with hands, eternal in the heavens. Six of her grand nephews consigned her body to mother earth. Many out of town relations and friends were present to witness the last ceremony.

A DEAR FRIEND.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Robert Wood, of Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, has discovered a new broad blade belt on Saturn.

The publication of an agreement between Roumania and the allies is eagerly awaited in Petrograd.

Bucharest dispatches report that fifteen Russian warships, including three Dreadnoughts, have been sighted off the Bulgarian coast.

The intended departure of thousands of Austrians and Germans from New York, for their native lands is being investigated by Federal officials. The plans are said to contemplate a dash for the high seas on December 4.

Acceptances of Henry Ford's invitation to participate in his peace voyage are so numerous two steamers will be used to convey the pacifists to Europe. In addition to the Oscar II, sailing Saturday, belated delegates will be accommodated on the Frederick VIII. The latter sails December 8.

The Japanese naval estimates for 1916 total about 100,000,000 yen ($50,000,000) a decrease of 6,000,000 yen from the 1915 budget. A supplementary expenditure of 45,000,000 yen for the construction of new warships, will be spread over a period of four years. The allotment for 1916 is 6,000,000 yen.

With the occupation of Rudnik, the capture of 2,700 prisoners and the flight of the "scanty remains" of the Serbian army into the Albanian mountains. Germany's operations against Serbia, have been brought to a close, says the official statement issued yesterday at the headquarters of the general staff.

The Canadian government has commandeered nearly 16,000,000 bushels of Nos. 1, 2 and 3 Northern wheat in terminal elevators, at Port Arthur, Fort William and in Eastern Canada. This wheat will be used to fill orders secured by the British government in the United Kingdom and from the allied governments.

Activity on the western European battle front during the past twenty-four hours, with the exception of isolated local engagements, was confined to the air. Reports issued by the war office this afternoon and tonight, chronicle a continuous series of victories for the aerial corps of the allied troops. Five aeroplanes were brought down in as many engagements.

While hundreds visited the scene of the tragedy on the Weitzmann farm, near New Brunswick, N. J., where six persons were found shot to death Saturday, the authorities yesterday began a search for a discharged servant girl who may furnish a clew to the motive for the murders. Samuel Weitzmann, his wife, and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Kigner, and the two farmhands were the victims.

British military experts are awaiting Germany's next move. With the Serbian campaign ended, and with Greece and Roumania marking time, it is believed that the German general staff has already outlined the next campaign. Whether it will be Egypt, India, Italy or France, is the problem the allies have not yet solved. Most writers here believe the Suez Canal wil be the objective at which the kaiser will hurl his hosts.

Bearing every evidennce of having been lynched, the body of John Henry Willey of Gibsonburg, Ohio, was found hanging from a tree yesterday only a short distance from where he is accused of having slain his aged grandmother, Mrs. Eva Kimbal, and seriously beaten his grandfather on February 12, last. He was tried on a charge of second degree murder, and the jury returned a verdict of assault and battery. Petition for a new trial on the latter charge has been filed, and he was at liberty under $5,000 bail.

A Turkish submarine stopped the British passenger ship Barulos in the Mediterranean and after 25 persons had been drowned, assisted in rescuing many of the 250 passengers, who had gone overboard in a panic, according to Eleanor Franklin Egan, an eyewitness, who arrived yesterday in New Work on the Barulos. When about five hours south of Crete, the ship picked up three boats containing the crew of the British steamship Sailor Prince, which had been sunk by a submarine a few hours previous.

The Serbians have received a French battery at Monastir, their forces under Gen. Vassich are at Topolitsani, half way between Prilep and Monastir, while the left wing is between Krusevo and Roana. Monastir's defense is facilitated by the fact that the plain north of the city is inundated as when the Turks defended it in 1912. King Peter has told his suite: "I will either be killed by German shrapnel or will kill my self when the enemies invade the plain of Kossovo, which will mark the fall of the Serbian empire."

VIRGINIA NEWS

By leaping overboard from the deck of the interned German cruiser Eitel Friedrich, at Norfolk last night, and swimming across the Elizabeth River, Ernest Schwertzgar, a sailor, enjoyed two hours of freedom in Norfolk. He was found by detectives, and is locked up at police headquarters.

The sales of tobacco in Lynchburg, last week brought the aggregate since the year opened September 1st, up to 1,068,400 pounds. During the week 299,000 pounds were marketed, but the breaks continue very light for the time of the year, a condition due to the continued dry weather. Prices as a rule are strong, this being particularly true of all desirable grades.

Edgar Beveridge ,sixty-two years old, a car repairer was instantly killed yesterday morning in the Fulton Yards of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, Richmond, when he was struck by a coal car, which was being shifted. He was knocked down, the wheels passing over him. The body was so frightfully mutilated as to be beyond recognization.

W. T. Watkins, Jr., son of a prominent farmer, and 15 years old, had his head torn into fragments by being caught in a corn shredder in Hawkin's county, ten miles from Gate City, Saturday afternoon.

On Thursday morning the mangled body of a negro man was found on the Norfolk and Western Railroad tracks about one mile east of Windsor. A coroner's jury was held over him and rendered the verdict that he came to his death from a bullet. The supposition is that he was shot and placed on the tracks. He had a bullet hole through his chest. There was found in his overall pocket some $10 or more.

Ambrose Rucker, son of O. C. Rucker, a Bedford county lawyer, who has been a member of a medical corps with a Canadian regiment in Belgium, was seriously wounded in the eyes and about the head in action in Belgium, November 19.

Logan Mann, 30 years old, made a determined effort to kill himself Saturday night, when he fired a bullet from a pistol into his left breast at the home of C. L. Chalkley, in Richmond. He was unconscious at an early hour yesterday morning. No cause was assigned for the deed.

George W. Bray, of Capitol Heights Md., has written Adjutant General W. W. Sale, enclosing his bill for three months' services rendered the Confederacy during the great civil struggle. Bray states that he was a member of Nelson's Battalion of Light Artillery, stationed at Fort Delaware, and was captured at Waynesboro in March, 1862. From that date until June following he was in a Northern prison. The Confederacy, he says, has never paid him a cent for his services.

Three hundred thousand dollars is the amount of United States Treasury funds on deposit in Richmond national banks that will be withdrawn on January 1, 1916, and placed in the Richmond Federal Reserve Bank, which thereafter will act as the depository and fiscal agent for the government in Richmond. Altogether $7,595,000 of government funds on deposit in the twelve cities where Federal deserve banks are located is to be drawn from the national banks and put in the reserve banks on that date.

Robert Gordon, 13 years old, who was struck by an automobile in Richmond, last week, died Saturday from his injuries.

The Supreme Court of Appeals on Saturday heard argument in the case of the Davy-Pocahontas Coal Company, against Kaylor, from Norfolk City Circuit Court, and then ordered a recess till January 4th, when the winter term will begin.

The Norfolk Savings and Loan Corporation with a capital of between $50,000 and $60,000 has been organized. The authorized capital is $100,000.

There are said to be at least 500 "dope fiends" in Norfolk.

Stomach Troubles

Persons who have stomach trouble are apt to become discouraged. They will see by the following that their chances of recovery are excellent. A. K. William, Independance, Va., tells of a remarkable cure that was effected in that vicinity. One of his customers was so badly afflicted with stomach trouble that he was sent to a hospital, but received little benefit and came home to die. Mr. Williams suggested that he try Chamberlain's Tablets which he did, and today he is a well man and weighs 175 pounds. Obtainable everywhere.

RISE OF INDIAN HEAD

A Resident of Indian Head Writes as Follows to the Baltimore Sun.

"Virginia has its Hopewell, New Jersey has it Carney's Point, but Southern Maryland has its Indian Head, and it is very rapidly coming to the front. The place has more than doubled in the last few years, three contracts have been let for additions to the works, with two more to follow within the month.

"The greatest trouble here, as at the other powder plants, is the accomodation of the many men employed about the place. One boarding house, with accommodations for 20, is now crowded with about 60; all the other boarding houses and hotels are filled the same way, and two of the places are now building bunk houses, it being the best that can be done at the time. One boarding-house keeper recently was obliged to canvass the town on Sunday night for mattresses having only floor space for many that had arrived by a late boat. New boarding houses are being built, but then the accommodations will not be enough for one-half the men here at this time."

ANTIDOTE FOR BICHLORIDE

Hospital Physicians Discover Way to Baffle Deadly Poison

Cincinnati, Nov. 29—Physicians at the Cincinnati General Hospital have discovered an antidote for bichloride of mercury, one of the most corrosive poisons known. When it is taken into consideration that Banker Hitchcock, of Chicago, had the best medical assistance that money could procure when he made his futile battle for life a few months ago, after taking one tablet by mistake, the importance of the discovery can be appreciated, the physicians declare.

A few days ago Birdie Talbott took four of the deadly tablets and was taken to the hospital writhing in agony. In their extremity the physicians gave her copious doses of Fisher's solution, a combination of drugs discovered by Prof. Martin Fisher, of the medical department of the Cincinnati University. Yesterday the woman left the hospital entirely cured.

WHALE ATTACKS STEAMER.

Bends Plate in Bulwarks And Nearly Swamps Vessel.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 29.—Showing the effects of a desperate battle with a huge sperm whale while 10 miles south of Mt. Edgecumbe, Kruzof Island, near the entrance of Sitka Sound, on June 15, the whaling steamer Star III, Capt. L. P. Halls, Gunner G. Earling, reached Eagle harbor after a successful season.

While taking one of the big mammals, which members of the crew described as "just like an ocean liner," the big fellow charged the steamer, damaging the gunwale, second towing chock on the starboard side and bending and crumpling a plate in the bulwarks for a distance of 10 feet. The weight of the whale nearly swamped the little steamer.

GERMANY NOT MAKING GIFTS

Report Of Returning Schleswig-Holstein Elicits Reply.

London, Nov. 29.— A Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says:

"The German Government, in a proclamation issued at Schleswig (capital of the Province of Schleswig-Holstein), referring to the reversion of this territory to Denmark after the war, either as a gift from Germany's enemies or as a reward from Germany, for Denmark's neutrality, states that military operations do not encourage the speculation that Germany can give anything away, and it would be unfair to Denmark to suppose the maintenance of her strict neutrality should be dictated by hope of foreign payment."

One-Tenth of People Danes.

Schleswig-Holstein is a province of Prussia, formed out of the Duchies of Schleswig, Holstein and Lauenburg, formerly belonging to Denmark, by which country it is bounded on the north. The area is 7,338 square miles and about one-tenth of the inhabitants are Danes.

Schleswig, long an object of contention between the Germans and the Danes, passed into the possession of the Kings of Denmark, in the eleventh century. In 1864, Prussia and Austria wrested the Duchies from Denmark.

The victory over Austria in 1866, enabled Prussia to incorporate these regions into her dominions.

A woman lost her life when the steamer Tivoli, burned in Chesapeake Bay Thursday night. William Dove of Covington, Ky., one of the passengers, was accompanying his sister Mrs. Bowdoin, to her home at Crisfield. She died in his arms from the shock of jumping into the water.

CANNOT ACCEPT BEQUEST

The Mount Hebron Cemetery Association of Winchester, to which was bequeathed $10,000 in trust by the will of the late Charles W. Houck, a wealthy retired Winchester contractor, and builder, cannot accept more than $1,000 of the bequeath, and the remaining $9,000 will be distributed among his heirs-at-law, according to a decision handed down last week by Judge T. W. Harrison, in the Corporation Court. It is not expected the case will be appealed. The late Mr. Houck left $10,000 to the cemetery association, to be invested perpetually and the income applied to the care of the grounds, for a radius of 400 feet around the Houck lot in the cemetery. Judge Harrison cited the Virginia statute, which makes it unlawful for anyone to will an amount in excess of $1,000, for such purposes, and held that the law was applicable and binding. The heirs also attacked a clause of the will which made the Braddock Street Methodist Episcopal Church South residuary legatee of the estate, after all other bequests had been made. The court held that under the law the church could not accept real estate valued at more than $30,000, but that such property could be sold and the proceeds accepted by the church as personal property.

TWO IN AUTO KILLED.

Car Turns Over Near Cumberland; Driver's Skull Crushed; Sister-In-Law's Neck Broken.

Cumberland, Md., Nov., 29.—Milton Dicken, aged 55 years, a grocer of this city, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice J. Kifer, aged 48, wife of Frank R. Kifer, merchant at Lavale, were killed yesterday afternoon when the automobile driven by Mr. Dicken turned over on its side while rounding a sharp curve in ascending Red Hill, on the National pike, about seven miles west of Cumberland.

Mrs. Dicken and Mr. Kifer, were injured, but not seriously.

Dicken evidently lost countrol of the car and it ran up the side of the embankment and fell back into the middle of the road. Dicken was caught under the top, his skull being crushed and face disfigured. Mrs. Kifer was thrown on the back of her head on the hard road surface and her neck broken.

To Overcome Eczema

Never mind how often you have tried and failed, you can stop burning, itching eczema quickly by applying a little zemo furnished by any druggist for 25c. Extra large bottle, $1.00. Healing begins the moment zemo is applied. In a short time usually every trace of pimples, black heads, rash, eczema, tetter and similar skin diseases will be removed.

For clearing the skin and making it vigorously healthy, zemo is an exceptional remedy. It is not greasy, sticky or watery and it does not stain. When others fail it is the one dependable treatment for all skin troubles.

ATTACKED BY AEROPLANE

British Steamer Under Fire 20 Minutes, But Not Damaged.

London, Nov. 29.—A Reuter dispatch from Rotterdam says the British steamer Balgownie, which has arrived there from London, reports that she was attacked Saturday near the Noored Hinder lightship by three German aeroplanes.

Machine-gun and rifle fire as well as bombs were directed against the steamer for 20 minutes, but she was not damaged.

Bronchitis

When a severe cold settles on the lungs it is called bronchitis. There is danger of its leading to broncho pneumonia, and for this reason it is always best to go to bed and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed until well along toward recovery. Mrs. Charles E. Woodard Sandy Creek, N. Y. writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured me of bronchitis last fall. When I began using it I was so hoarse at times that it was difficult for me to speak above a whisper. I resorted to the use of this valuable medicine and found it very soothing and healing. In a week's time I was well." Ob-

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
